1. Between 8:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. on 1 October 1953, 30 MiG-15s, 4 Yak-11s and 9 Pe-2s were observed at Deutsch Wagram (P 49/S 50) airfield. There was no air activity. At 10:30 a.m. clouds had disappeared and there was a northwesterly wind at 5 km/h and visibility was limited in the morning and good later on. Work of an undetermined type was being done on a Pe-2. A freight car loaded with Pe-2 scrap, including rudder assemblies and wing sections, was observed at Strasshof railroad station. The AA gun emplacement was unoccupied and unguarded. The following motor vehicles, the drivers of which wore black-bordered blue epaulets, were observed at the entrance to the airfield: Van-like trucks

The antenna and searchlight installations at Obersiebenbrunn (P 49/ S 60) and at the field were unchanged.

2. At the aircraft repair shop in Deutsch Wagram, 3 gray crates, measuring 2 x 1.5 x 1.5 meters, and 5 unpainted crates, 1 x 1.2 x 1 meters, were observed. One of the gray crates, by means of a small crane, was loaded on truck which subsequently proceeded in the direction of the airfield. The driver of the truck wore black-bordered blue epaulets. The pile of Pe-2 scrap was unchanged. Twelve trucks, including eight tank trucks, including and 1 ambulance were parked at the motor vehicle park. The garages near the school were unoccupied. The construction of a filling station was completed. Truck was identified in front of the garages. The antenna installation was no longer seen.

Two field kitchens were in operation in the yard of the "smaller building". Intensive activity was observed in the area of the campment. One truck and a van-like truck were parked there. Eighteen trucks and 4 van-like trucks were parked in the camp on the edge of the woods.

4. Between 2:30 p.m. and 3 p.m. on 1 October, the two van-like trucks, one of which was fitted with a seven-sectional directional antenna were again observed near Fartasdorf (P 49/S 50). The telephone line leading from the installation to the billets in Fartasdorf was unchanged. Truck 25X1B with a driver wearing black-bordered blue epaulets was parked in front of the quarters.

25X1A Comment. A Soviet fighter regiment is stationed at Deutsch Wagram airfield. The scrapping of Pe-2s is continued at Wiener Neustadt and Aspern.
